

Additional Information Sources

In addition to the online help, you will find alerts, gadgets, glossaries, and tabs to be helpful sources of information.

Special Information Windows and Alerts

Special Information windows will display any user alerts after a user has been identified. Information about user status are typical library alerts.

Gadgets

A gadget icon will appear when you can access information such as date/time ranges and monetary amounts. Click on the gadget icon to display the information.

Glossaries

Glossaries are indicated by a dashed line under a field of information. Clicking on the line will bring up a box containing more information about the user or item.

The screenshot shows the 'Display User' window with a 'Checkouts' tab selected. A table lists checkout records. The first record is highlighted, and a dashed underline is under the 'Item ID' field. A popup window titled 'Display User : Glossary' is open, displaying detailed information for that item.
