

L'Encyclopédie Découvertes is an online French language reference site offering World Book's editorial content translated into French. The encyclopedia is written at a reading level appropriate for younger users who are native speakers and readers of French, as well as older students and adults for whom French is a second language.

The site offers thousands of encyclopedia articles, photos and illustrations, diagrams and maps, combined with efficient search and retrieval capabilities, and an interface that is easy to understand and intuitive to use.

To enter the resource, start from the INFOhio home page, <http://www.infohio.org>.

- Click on Resources for Grades 6-8, 9-12 or Core Collection.
- Click on the L'Encyclopédie Découvertes button.
- If necessary, enter your username and password.

The screenshot displays two versions of the website's home page. The top version features a search bar, navigation tabs for 'Images', 'Dictionnaire visuel', 'Activités', and 'Sites Internet', and a grid of topic buttons including 'Peuple', 'Explorons le monde', 'Science et mathématiques', 'Religions du monde', 'Plantes et animaux', and 'Histoire'. A callout box points to the navigation tabs, stating: "Easy access to images, a visual dictionary, activities and selected Internet sites." The bottom version shows a similar layout but with a different set of topic buttons: 'Sports et loisirs', 'Arts et littérature', 'Science et mathématiques', 'Religions du monde', 'Plantes et animaux', and 'Histoire'. A callout box explains: "Users can choose between two different home pages by selecting 'Changer l'affichage.'"
