

Join us for a free, interactive video conference professional development workshop for teachers, librarians, curriculum coordinators, guidance counselors and technology coordinators. CEU certificates will be provided.

TRAILS: Helping Students Plot Successful Paths to Information Literacy

December 16, 2009, 3:30 – 4:30 p.m.

The Tool for Real-Time Assessment of Information Literacy Skills (TRAILS) measures students' information literacy skills. Learn how to use this assessment tool that is freely available on the Web. Learn how to create and manage an online account on the TRAILS site. Learn how to download the TRAILS data and put it into a spreadsheet to produce charts and graphs. Get ideas on how teachers, administrators and librarians collaborate using the assessment results to develop strong instruction and assignments. The session is appropriate for those working with grades 3-12.

The session presenter is Jennifer Schwelik, INFOhio Consultant and TRAILS Project Manager. Co-presenter is Jennifer Flaherty, Beachwood High School Librarian.
