

The National Underground Railroad Freedom Center reveals stories about freedom's heroes, from the era of the Underground Railroad to contemporary times, challenging and inspiring everyone to take courageous steps for freedom today. The Freedom Center prides itself on being a rich resource for educating school children, as well as the public at large. An experience that is carried out both within the walls of the Freedom Center and outside its walls – in school classrooms, via the Web, and Freedom Stations across the nation.

The screenshot shows the website's main page with a navigation bar containing links for MEMBERSHIP, DONATE, EVENTS, ABOUT US, GIFT SHOP, FOR EDUCATORS, and FREEDOM BLOG. A callout bubble says "Click on For Educators" pointing to the "FOR EDUCATORS" link. Below the navigation bar is a "FREEDOM BLOG" section with several article titles. A large image of hands on a stone wall with the words "GOOD INTENT" is featured. Below the image is a quote: "We reveal stories about freedom's heroes, from the era of the Underground Railroad to contemporary times, challenging and inspiring everyone to take courageous steps for freedom today." Below the quote are two boxes: "GENEALOGY & FAMILY SEARCH" and "EXPAND YOUR KNOWLEDGE". The "EXPAND YOUR KNOWLEDGE" box contains a "MAKE A DIFFERENCE" section with a "DONATE NOW" button and a list of categories: Community Outreach, Community Dialogues, Faith Outreach, Community Partners, Freedom Center Choice, Speakers Bureau, and Young Professionals. A second callout bubble says "Click here." pointing to the "Educator Resources" link in the "EXPAND YOUR KNOWLEDGE" section.
