

Available free from home and @ your library®

INFOhio, Ohio's virtual library is a collection of commercial databases and other resources that can be accessed free by Ohio teachers, students and their parents via the Internet. You can use INFOhio 24 hours a day, 7 days a week from any internet accessible computer including at home or at the public library.

INFOhio can help your child succeed in school by providing:

- Reliable & up-to-date resources on many subjects for all age groups
- Homework help
- Large, organized collections of maps, pictures, charts
- Test-Preparation resources
- Full-text magazine and newspaper articles
- Online encyclopedias and dictionaries in English & Spanish
- Much, much more!

To use INFOhio at home you'll need a username & password:

 Username -

 Password -

*The State of Ohio provides free, unlimited access to INFOhio for all public and non-public preK-12 schools, educators, students and their parents across Ohio.
October 2005*

Encourage your child to look for information and answers on INFOhio at www.INFOhio.org from home or @ your library®

www.INFOhio.org